

The City of Mountain View Senior Center presents...
A Community Event with Artist-in-Residence, Keith Urban

The Joy of Movement and Storytelling

All Ages Welcome – Free Admission!

THIS FESTIVE COMMUNITY EVENT

features storytelling by Debra Ting, live cello music by Chi Chen, and gentle, mindful movement with Keith Urban. Debra will share a story featuring universal themes — such as love, separation and loss, enchantment and joy. She'll guide us as we remember our own stories, with opportunities to explore, embody, and share through movement, drawing, words, and music.

DEBRA TING is a gifted storyteller and retreat leader who divides her time between the San Francisco Bay area and Minneapolis, Minnesota. Her first CD of stories is titled Standing Gracefully.

Cellist CHI CHEN has performed in concert halls around the world, and in films with Madonna and Barbara Streisand. Her new CD, One Cello, One World, features original compositions as well as traditional Chinese love songs transcribed for Cello. Chi is also an interior designer and Feng Shui consultant.

KEITH URBAN is a celebrated teacher, choreographer and dancer. A founding member of Toronto Dance Theatre, and former Chair of the Dance Department at York University in Toronto, he is currently artist-in-residence at the Senior Center. He also teaches at Stanford University and Foothill College.

Keith Urban's artist residency, Blessings: Sharing our Stories and our Gifts, is made possible in part by the generous support of the Silicon Valley Community Foundation.
